Dear Applicant

Thank you for your interest in the Headteacher role at St Bartholomew's School, Wigginton. I hope you find this information pack a useful introduction to our school.

Our vision is "an adventurous environment where curiosity is developed, independence is nurtured, and a happy community is rooted in Christian values".

Our successful school has established strong links and relationships that have been developed between staff, pupils, parents, and the broader school community.

In recruiting a new Headteacher, we are seeking someone who can shape and share our vision and ethos. The successful candidate will have the drive, enthusiasm, and relevant experience to move our school to the next stage of its development.

The closing date for applications is Wednesday 21st September. Shortlisting will be taking place on Monday 26th September. For further information about our school, please visit our website.

We would like to invite all potential applicants to visit the school during the week commencing 12th September. To do this, or to discuss the role please contact cgeoghegan@stbarts.herts.sch.uk to arrange a time.

Thank you for your interest in St Bartholomew's School. We wish you the best with your application and look forward to meeting you.

Yours faithfully

Chair of Governors

Our Vision and Values

Our vision and values are at the core of everything we do. They underpin our teaching and learning, and provide an environment which prepares our pupils as confident, happy citizens.

Our Vision Statement

An adventurous environment where curiosity is developed, independence is nurtured, and a happy community is rooted in Christian values.

Our Values

These values are discussed in our Collective Worship; they form part of our teaching each year; and they are shared with families through our values homework.

Job Description for Headteacher at St Bartholomew's

Overall responsibility for providing leadership to the school to secure its success and continuous improvement, ensuring high quality education for all its pupils and improved standards of teaching and learning in line with statutory requirements.

This job description reflects the national standards of excellence for headteachers 2020. https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-standards-of-excellence-forheadteachers/headteachers-standards-2020

The appointment is subject to the current conditions of employment of Headteachers, contained in the Schools Teachers' Pay and Conditions document, the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 and all other current education, employment and health and safety legislation.

Ethics and professional conduct

Headteachers are expected to demonstrate consistently high standards of principled and professional conduct. They are expected to meet the teachers' standards and be responsible for providing the conditions in which teachers can fulfil them.

Headteachers should uphold and demonstrate the Seven Principles of Public Life at all times;

- selflessness
- integrity
- objectivity
- accountability
- openness
- honestv
- leadership

Headteachers uphold public trust in school leadership and maintain high standards of ethics and behaviour both within and outside school:

- build relationships rooted in mutual respect, and at all times observe proper boundaries appropriate to their professional position
- show tolerance of and respect for the rights of others, recognising differences and respecting cultural diversity within contemporary Britain
- uphold fundamental British values, including democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect, and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs
- ensure that personal beliefs are not expressed in ways which exploit their position, pupils' vulnerability or might lead pupils to break the law

As leaders of their school community and profession, headteachers:

- serve in the best interests of the school's pupils
- uphold their obligation to give account and accept responsibility
- know, understand, and act within the statutory frameworks which set out their professional duties and responsibilities
- take responsibility for their own continued professional development, engaging critically with educational research
- make a positive contribution to the wider education system

Headteachers' standards

1. School culture

- establish and sustain the school's ethos and strategic direction in partnership with those responsible for governance and through consultation with the school community
- create a culture where pupils experience a positive and enriching school life
- uphold ambitious educational standards which prepare pupils from all backgrounds for their next phase of education and life
- promote positive and respectful relationships across the school community and a safe, orderly and inclusive environment
- ensure a culture of high staff professionalism

2. Teaching

- establish and sustain high-quality, expert teaching across all subjects and phases
- ensure teaching is underpinned by high levels of subject expertise and approaches which respect the distinct nature of subject disciplines or specialist domains
- ensure effective use is made of formative assessment

3. Curriculum and assessment

- ensure a broad, structured, and coherent curriculum entitlement which sets out the knowledge, skills and values that will be taught
- establish effective curricular leadership, developing subject leaders with high levels of relevant expertise with access to professional networks and communities
- ensure that all pupils are taught to read through the provision of evidence-informed approaches to reading, particularly the use of systematic synthetic phonics in schools that teach early reading
- ensure valid, reliable, and proportionate approaches are used when assessing pupils' knowledge and understanding of the curriculum

4. Behaviour

- establish and sustain high expectations of behaviour for all pupils, built upon relationships, rules and routines, which are understood clearly by all staff and pupils
- ensure high standards of pupil behaviour and courteous conduct in accordance with the school's behaviour policy
- implement consistent, fair and respectful approaches to managing behaviour
- ensure that adults within the school model and teach the behaviour of a good citizen

5. Additional and special educational needs and disabilities

- ensure the school holds ambitious expectations for all pupils with additional and special educational needs and disabilities
- establish and sustain culture and practices that enable pupils to access the curriculum and learn effectively
- ensure the school works effectively in partnership with parents, carers, and professionals, to identify the additional needs and special educational needs and disabilities of pupils, providing support and adaptation where appropriate
- ensure the school fulfils its statutory duties with regard to the SEND code of practice

6. Professional development

- ensure staff have access to professional development opportunities, aligned to balance the priorities of whole-school improvement, team and individual needs
- prioritise the professional development of staff, which is consistent with the approaches laid out in the standard for teachers' professional development
- ensure that professional development opportunities draw on expert provision from beyond the school

7. Organisational management

- ensure the protection and safety of pupils and staff through effective approaches to safeguarding
- prioritise and allocate financial resources appropriately, ensuring efficiency, effectiveness and probity in the use of public funds
- ensure staff are deployed and managed well with due attention paid to workload
- establish and oversee systems, processes and policies that enable the school to operate effectively and efficiently
- ensure rigorous approaches to identifying, managing, and mitigating risk

8. Continuous school improvement

- make use of effective processes of evaluation to identify and analyse problems and barriers which limit school effectiveness, and identify priority areas for improvement
- develop appropriate evidence-informed strategies for improvement as part of welltargeted plans which are realistic, timely, appropriately sequenced and suited to the school's context
- ensure careful and effective implementation of improvement strategies, which lead to sustained school improvement over time

9. Working in partnership

- forge constructive relationships beyond the school, working in partnership with parents, carers and the local community
- commit their school to work successfully with other schools and organisations in a climate of mutual challenge and support
- establish and maintain working relationships with fellow professionals and colleagues across other public services to improve educational outcomes for all pupils

10. Governance and accountability

- understand and welcome the role of effective governance, upholding their obligation to give account and accept responsibility
- establish and sustain professional working relationship with those responsible for governance
- ensure that staff know and understand their professional responsibilities and are held to account
- ensure the school effectively and efficiently operates within the required regulatory frameworks and meets all statutory duties

St Bartholomew's school is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. The Headteacher is the Designated Safeguarding Lead, supported by a deputy and is responsible for cascading training in regard to any changes in safeguarding practice.

All staff are encouraged to develop their knowledge, skills, understanding and attitudes to enhance their professional work and continue to improve. The wellbeing and training of our staff is seen as critical in creating an effective and talented staff team.

St Bartholomew's is an equal opportunities employer and opposes discrimination of any kind. All our employees are recruited on the basis of ability and the requirements of the job. Applications are welcomed from all sections of the community irrespective of race, gender, gender reassignment, age, disability, sexuality, nationality, religion, or belief. There is a legitimate occupational requirement that candidates should be able and willing to maintain and develop the particular character of the school as a Church of England foundation, but it does not follow that candidates must profess the Christian or any faith.
